THE MISSION

Humanitarian + environmental action delivered through fieldwork, education, innovation, sustainability, and regenerative community development.

We restore ecosystems, support communities, and build long-term pathways for stability and purpose.

THE PROBLEM

Climate threats, homelessness, soil degradation, ecosystem collapse, unemployment, and urban instability are accelerating at the same time.

Over 650,000 Americans are unhoused, and climate disasters displaced more than 3 million people in the last decade.

Traditional systems can't keep up. We need decentralized, mobile, regenerative solutions that meet communities where they are.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Radako integrates:

- Environmental Field Missions
- Humanitarian Support
- Sustainability Education
- Web3 Transparency
- Regenerative Housing Concepts
- Robotics & 3D-Printed Hempcrete R&D
- Community-Centered Ecosystem Restoration

A cross-sector model with scalable national impact.

IMMEDIATE GOAL

$421,999 – $1,000,000+

To launch the Mobile Mission Unit — a new fully equipped, technology-enabled field studio and mobile HQ for:

- Ecosystem Restoration
- Disaster Response Support
- Environmental Documentation
- Sustainability Education
- Community Outreach
- Volunteer Activation
- Web3 Transparency

Includes securing an LA operations base to serve as command center for nationwide missions.

MOBILE MISSION UNIT

A single vehicle with covered expenses unlocks:

- Nationwide Field Missions
- Real-Time Environmental Documentation
- Pop-up Sustainability Workshops
- Digital Education Content
- Micro-Disaster Support
- On-site Volunteer Mobilization
- Media & Documentary Creation at Scale

GROWTH PLAN

Phase I — Foundation ($421k+)

Mobile Unit, LA base, field missions, content studio, volunteers.

Phase II — Scale ($4M–$10M+)

Fleet expansion, media division, Web3 infrastructure, sustainability R&D, robotics.

Phase III — Legacy ($10M–$100M+)

Regenerative campuses nationwide with eco-housing, workforce training, robotics/hempcrete labs, & full documentary campus.

\ Creator's pending litigation (estimated $100B claim) positions Radako to deploy billions toward campus development if awarded. Radako is preparing responsibly for all funding scenarios.*

REGENERATIVE CAMPUSES

Regenerative campuses provide:

- Transitional-to-Permanent Eco-Housing
- Jobs + Workforce Development
- Soil Restoration + Ecosystem Repair
- Sustainable Agriculture
- Hempcrete / 3D Printing Labs
- Robotics for Environmental Innovation
- Environmental Media + Training Center
- Serving Unhoused Individuals, Veterans, Graduates,
& Climate-Impacted Communities.

\ Pilot campuses projected to serve 150–500 residents each, combining housing, training, agriculture, & innovation.*

WHY RADAKO

- Lean, Scalable Operational Model
- Founder Expertise; Business, Law, Media, Tech, Architecture, etc.
- Organic Multi-Network Audience Reach
- Immediate & Long-Term Impact Opportunities
- Climate + Housing + Employment + Education; Simultaneously
- Future-Forward Innovation (AI, Robotics, Web3, Hempcrete)
- High ROI on Philanthropy

Track Record: radako.org already generates organic traffic & volunteer engagement without funding. $50k donation already guaranteed pending IRS 501(c)(3) status.

CALL TO ACTION

Connect with Radako to fund launch of the Mobile Mission Unit and help educate people on environmental and humanitarian issues with potential to build foundation for future regenerative campuses.

\ Funding the Mobile Mission Unit in 2025 accelerates productions and development.*
